

Pacific Piecemakers Quilt Guild
Minutes of the Meeting
4/19/19

The meeting was called to order by President Sandy Hughes at 1:04 pm. There were no guests or visitors. Member attendance was 23.

The minutes of the March 2019 meeting were posted on the website. Iris Lorenz-Fife moved and Cheryl Faconti seconded to accept the minutes as posted. The motion passed.

Old Business: Cheryl Faconti delivered quilts to fire victims.

President Sandy announced a new game for our meetings. Members were asked to write their name and three or more facts about themselves. These were then collected by Sandy and she will put the describing facts of one person in the newsletter. We will then try to figure out who that person is.

Treasurer's Report: Pam Todd reported a beginning balance for March of $19,325.00, income of $275.00, expenses of $756.00, with an ending balance of $19,285.00.

Program Committee: Barbara Dunsmoor talked about the upcoming classes and lectures.

October	Jennie Henderson repeat of her natural dyeing class.

Continuing Education: Kalynn Oleson/Jan Carter: no report

Challenge 2019: Melissa Finley: Melissa was absent, but Jan Carter had red fabric for anyone who needed it. September 20 is the date to turn in your Challenge Registration form. Deliver artwork to GAC on October 2. Challenge opening reception is on October 4. Pick up challenge artwork on October 28.

Fundraising: Marcie Johnston, Sylvia Evans and Pam Todd are working on Art In The Redwoods 2019.

Art In The Redwoods Quilt: Jan Carter reported that the quilt is at Judy Riddle's house being quilted.

Comfort Quilts: Marcia Luchini, Wendy Hodam, Marcie Johnston

We were reminded to keep making items to sell for Art in the Redwoods and also for Festival of the Trees.

Quilts of Valor: Sandy Lockhart and Lori Holmes: They have some, but more Quilts of Valor are needed.

Retreat: Jan Carter: There is not a definite date yet, but keep the first week of February open in your calendar.

GA Christmas tree: Melissa Finley and Mary Eberhard: They will let us know in a future meeting what they would like us to make for ornaments.

Holiday luncheon: Sylvia Evans and Judy Riddle: No report.

Library: Iris Lorenz-Fife: Iris has sold some books to members and has more to sell. She also requested that we give her 3" x 7" pieces of blue fabrics for a quilt she is making.

Membership: Gail Spencer: All dues are paid, and the roster is out. Bonnie Toy made a file which we can keep on our computers and make additions or changes as they happen.

Publicity: Open Position:

Newsletter: Judy Riddle: Articles for the newsletter are needed by April 25.

Hospitality: Thank you to Cheryl Faconti, Pam Todd, Sandy Lockhart, and Mary Eberhard for bringing treats.

New Business: The Guild still needs volunteers for Publicity, Programs 2020/2021, Art in the Redwoods 2020, Festival of Trees 2020 to help Margreth Barrett.

Barbara Dunsmoor is on the GAC Exhibition Committee, along with Kendra Stillman. It would be good if there were another person from PPQG on this committee. It meets April 23 at 11:30 pm. at GAC.

Name Tag Drawing: The drawing was won by Pat Connell.

Show and Tell: Cheryl Faconti showed an apron she made from a man's shirt. Janice Batchelder showed a comfort quilt made of square blocks.

Pat Connell showed a comfort quilt made partially from Fanny Basket fabrics, and a second comfort quilt made in a garden theme.

Greth Barrett showed a work in progress, a quilt in blues, featuring Steller's Jay prints, a landscape wall hanging she made, and her challenge quilt with a musical theme.
