

We Stitch the Music, We Quilt the Song

Celebrate a Wave of Change, by
Charlotte Tefft

Pacific Piecemakers Quilt Guild will host the opening of their 18th annual Challenge show, 'We Stitch the Music, We Quilt the Songs' on April 4, 2014 with wine and appetizers served in the foyer from 5 -7pm. The quilts will remain on display through April 27th.

Quilters are encouraged to find inspiration in musical sounds, such as a favorite song, sounds of nature or musical instruments, and to express them in either an art quilt, a folk art quilt, wearable art or a traditional pattern. Completely optional, you could opt to include a secondary challenge which would incorporate elements from recent classes such as light, movement, wind or water.

For information on this challenge please call Iris Lorenz-Fife at 886 5030

Entries open only to PPQG members.

Vintage Wagon Wheels, by
Chris Boersma Smith