

Pacific Piecemakers Quilt Guild

Meeting Minutes

June 19, 2026

The meeting was called to order by president Kathy Mayda at 1:14 pm. There were twelve members and one guest present.

Approval of Minutes:

Iris Lorenz-Fife moved and Andrea Polk seconded that we approve the May meeting minutes as presented. The motion carried.

Old Business:

The guild has decided not to participate in the Point Arena 4th of July parade this year because there are not enough people available.

Scholarships:

Gualala Arts Center scholarships, funded by PPQG, were recently presented to high school students. Anthony Cabrera from Point Arena HS and Stephen Mitchell from Pacific Community Charter HS each received $2,000.00 for their higher education.

Correspondence:

Bonnie Coffey-Smith wrote a note to the guild with thanks for the prize she won at the Challenge Show. She used part of it for a new ironing board cover for the guild.

Membership Report: Gail Spencer
No report.

Treasurer's Report: Kim Madson

Last month's expenses were $2,0008.49 and income was $40.00, leaving us with a bank balance of $24,729.62.

2027 Challenge: Bonnie Coffey-Smith, Gail Spencer, Kathy Mayda.

The theme for the 2027 challenge will be "Winging It." The date will be some time in May. A drawing was held for the remaining prize from the 2026 challenge. A gift certificate from The Loft was won by Jan Carter.

Second Thursday Sew-In:

There will be no sew-in in July or August. Next scheduled Sew-in will be in September.

Comfort Quilts: Marcia Luchini, Cheryl Faconti:

This month's two-day workshop was facilitated by Sandy Lockhart and Marcia. Lunch was provided by the Hospitality Committee.

Three comfort quilts were given away this month. We need more "lady" quilts.

Veteran's Honor Quilts: Sandy Lockhart

We have 49 quilts made and turned in. Don't stop making quilts! The ceremony for opening the Veteran's memorial at Point Arena Lighthouse will be either the weekend before or the weekend after Veteran's Day. All of our quilts need to in by the end of September. Sandy has written thank-you notes for all the quilts donated to us by other guilds.

2026 Fundraising: Mary Banach

Marilyn Alderson won the prize drawing.

2026 AIR Quilt: Kelly Colburn.

Titled "Memories of Grandma's Quilts in the Attic" (92" x 93")

Raffle tickets are available. Please help support our scholarship program by selling tickets.

Art In the Redwoods

The dates for AIR are August 14, 15, 16. A sign-up was passed around for volunteers to sign up to work shifts.

Newsletter: Mary Banach

The 25th is the deadline for articles or photos. Contact Mary or Andrea with any questions.

Library: Iris Lorenz-Fife

Library books that have been culled from our stacks are for sale today on the back tables. Iris doesn't want any books left behind!

Summer Gathering: Jan Carter

The guild's summer picnic will be July 17 at the GAC picnic grounds. Meet at 12:00 noon. The guild will furnish salad greens and cookies. Please bring a topping to add to the salad. Bring your own plates, cutlery, napkins, and drinking glass. Ice water will be provided, or bring your own drink. We will be playing QUILTO, so please bring three fat quarters.

Show and Tell:

Francie Angwin showed a Veteran's Honor Quilt top made yesterday, and a quilt she made for her son/teacher Ben's 3rd grade class at Point Area.

Marcia Luchini showed a big VHQ which is a star quilt.

Kim Madson showed a VHQ made and donated by Connie Seale, a pinwheel VHQ made by herself, and also a comfort quilt she made in fall colors.

Andrea Polk showed a pink comfort quilt.

Gail Spencer showed a VHQ that she made in conjunction with Kathryn Weiss.

Jan Carter showed a VHQ.

Name Tag Drawing:

The drawing was won by Sandy Lockhart.

The meeting adjourned at 1:55 pm.
